

Minor gang raped; six including woman held

TIMES NEWS NETWORK

Rajkot: Six persons, including a woman, were detained on Thursday for allegedly gang raping a 17-year-old girl in Madhapar on the outskirts of Bhuj.

In the incident that took place a fortnight ago, the survivor, who is a school dropout, was in love with one Suresh Bawaji, who is a labourer. Her parents too work as labourers. According to the police, for the past 10 days, Bawaji had been out of station and, hence, did not meet her.

In the complaint the minor alleged that Bawaji too had allegedly raped her on the promise of marriage, a month ago. After this, he even stopped taking her calls, she told the police.

Cops said the four accused — Sultan Surangi, Sikan-dar Mathada, Sultan Bafan and their unidentified aide — knew about the relationship between Bawaji and the survivor.

“The accused contacted the survivor and assured her of arranging a meeting between the duo. Surangi and Mathada took her on a bike to Madhapar, where Bafan and the unidentified accused were waiting. Then all the four accused took turns to rape the survivor,” said an official from Bhuj B division police station.

“Apart from the four accused, we’ve also booked Bawaji as he is accused of raping the survivor. We have also booked a woman named Jamila Bhaya, a relative of one of the rape accused, who had allegedly threatened to kill the survivor and her family members if she complained about the gangrape,” the official added.

Scared from the threat on her life, the survivor did not approach the police and went to stay with her elder sister. However, she returned home on Monday and the accused again demanded physical gratification from her, when she opened up about her ordeal to her family members. Following this, they lodged a police complaint.

At present, the police have detained the accused, who will be formally arrested once they undergo Covid-19 test.

Five sadhus held for ₹25L fraud

TIMES NEWS NETWORK

Rajkot: A gang of five sadhus was busted on Thursday in Amreli for allegedly swindling of cash and jewellery while performing a tantrik ritual at the house of the victim and duping him of Rs 25 lakh.

Police said the accused, Rukhadrath Chauhan (25), Jan Nath Padhiyar (30), Kavarnath Bhati (35), Nareshnath Padhiyar (25) and Ghasnath Padhiyar (35), were arrested from Chital Road of Amreli.

The police seized Rs 7.85 lakh cash and jewellery worth Rs 4.83 lakh and a car from the accused.

According to the police, 10 months ago, Chauhan, Jan Nath Padhiyar and Bhati had visited the house of Jayanti Pipadia in Pithadia village of Bagasara taluka in Amreli district for begging. Introducing himself as Vaghiasa Bapu, Chauhan told Pipadia that he had a spell of evil in his house. Pipadia also got convinced as his wife was suffering from a mental disease, he had financial trouble and there was no peace in the house.

“Chauhan got Pipadia to talk to his so-called guru over the phone in Junagadh. Chauhan told Pipadia that a tantrik ritual would solve all his problems. Then Chauhan called Pipadia to Than near Chotila in Surendranagar. During the ritual, Nareshnath was present. Putting vermilion in his mouth to show that he was bleeding he started writhing in pain. Then Chauhan told Pipadia that the ritual had failed and that he would have to perform another ritual which was very costly,” said R K Karamata, sub-inspector with Amreli local crime branch.

Chauhan then called Pipadia at Dwarka and collected Rs 9 lakh cash and gold jewellery worth Rs 80,000. Chauhan told Pipadia that there was a black magic performed on his farm and asked him to sell the farm. When Pipadia got Rs 15 lakh from the sale of his farm, Chauhan asked him to give him that money in order to purify it with ritual. When Pipadia gave him the money at a temple in Kuwadava locality of Rajkot, Chauhan and the co-accused vanished.

Man electrocuted: A man was electrocuted in Khadavadi village of Jasdan taluka in Rajkot on Wednesday. The deceased was identified as Vijay Koli (26). TNN

Recover fine for mangrove destruction in Kutch: NGT

Forest Dept To Be Nodal Agency For Compliance

New Delhi: The National Green Tribunal on Thursday directed the environment ministry and the Gujarat government to recover fine from violators responsible for destruction of mangroves in Kutch district.

A bench headed by NGT Chairperson Justice A K Goel noted that destruction of mangroves took place but violators were not identified though the liability was of the Deendayal Port Trust.

The amount to be recovered has also been quantified along with the area where damage took place, it noted.

“Let further steps be taken for enforcement of order of this tribunal dated September 11, 2019. The amount determined be recovered expeditiously and restoration work be executed which may be overseen by a joint Committee comprising Forest Department and Gujarat Coastal Zone Management Authority,” the bench said.

Forest department will be the nodal agency for compliance, the NGT said while directing the joint Committee to ensure compliance of directions, including stopping and remedying violation of Coastal Regulation Zone Notification, including any salt manufacturing activity and Forest Conservation Act, 1980.

“The joint Committee may file a compliance report with the Chief Secretary, Gujarat within three months,” the bench said.

Plea filed by Kachch Camel Breeders Association seeking execution of September 11, 2019 order of the tribunal

The NGT had earlier sought response from centre and others on the allegation that Deen Dayal Port Trust in Kutch district was not executing the directions issued by it to protect the mangroves in its vicinity from destruction.

The tribunal was hearing a plea filed by Kachch Camel Breeders Association seeking execution of September 11, 2019 order of the NGT.

“It has been submitted before us that none of the direction given in our judgment dated September 11, 2019 has been followed. Issue notices to the respondents by registered post /acknowledgement,” the bench had said.

The petitioner association had alleged rampant clearing of the mangroves in Nani Chirai and Moti Chirai areas of Bhachau Taluka in Kutch district by the Deen Dayal Port Trust.

The destruction of mangroves not only violates the Forest Conservation Act, 1980 and Coastal Regulatory Zone Notification, 2011, but also deprives the indigenous Kharai camel species of its major food source, thereby affecting the livelihoods of several hundred camel breeders of the region,” the petition had said.

The petition, filed through advocate Sanjay Upadhyay, claimed that the “incessant destruction activities” of the respondents have diminished the cover of sparse mangroves found at the site and destroyed the habitat of the indigenous Kharai camels which has affected the livelihood of villagers dependent on the mangroves.

It said these activities carried out by the DPT were without any CRZ or forest clearance which was causing irreversible loss of mangroves in the region. ¶¶

Covid-battered trader hangs to death in Rajkot

TIMES NEWS NETWORK

Rajkot: Financial crisis due to the lockdown drove a trader to commit suicide at his residence in Shastri Nagar of Gandhinagar locality in Rajkot on Thursday morning.

Police said Vishal Jogadia (23) hanged himself to death from the ceiling fan in the room of his house.

“Jogadia was into the business of decoration of wedding venues. The lockdown destroyed his business. He had married just before the lockdown. He had been suffering from depression for the past few days. On Thursday morning when Jogadia did not come out of his room, his brother went to call him and found his door locked. From the window, he saw Jogadia's body hanging,” said an official from Gandhinagar police station.

The police also found the suicide note left by Jogadia in which he did not blame anyone and said that he was taking the drastic step of his own accord.

PSI suspended for using bootlegger's seized car

TIMES NEWS NETWORK

Rajkot: A sub-inspector with Kalavad taluka police station was suspended after his video showing him using a seized car of a bootlegger went viral on Thursday.

Bootlegger Yuvrajsinh Jadeja (30), who was caught along with a car, lodged a complaint alleging that S M Radadia, sub-inspector with Kalavad taluka police station, had been taking his seized car for the personal use.

“Radadia sends his family members in my car and many times I have seen him using my car,” alleged Jadeja.

On Thursday, Jadeja caught his car on Kalavad-

The car allegedly used by the PSI

Jamnagar Road. Jadeja was driving in another car with a woman advocate, Prabha.

“I overtook the car and made it stop. Then it was Prabha who shot the video of the car and started asking questions to Radadia's wife and gram rakshak dal jawan Devji Devshi, who was driving the car. While Radadia's wife evaded questions, Devshi admitted that he drove the car at the instructions of Radadia,” said Jadeja.

On Thursday, I caught the car and got its video shot. I have forwarded my complaint to Jamnagar superintendent of police,” said Yuvrajsinh.

Amreli police make first arrest under new PASA Act

TIMES NEWS NETWORK

Rajkot: Two loan sharks in Amreli were arrested on Thursday under the recently amended Prevention Of Anti-Social Activities (PASA) Act.

Amreli local crime branch (LCB) inspector RK Karamata said the arrests of Premji Bawishi (59) and Jhilu Bhutaiya (40) were the first in Gujarat under the amended Act.

The duo has been accused of driving a man to suicide in Mota Ankadia village of Amreli taluka.

Bawishi was sent to Sabarmati Central Jail while Bhutaiya was sent to Vadodra Central Jail.

Earlier, only bootlegging and physical assault and theft were covered under the purview of PASA. Following the amendments, usury, cyber crimes, gambling and sexual offences have also been included under the purview of PASA.

Lakshmanpari Gosai (47) had committed suicide by consuming pesticides at his residence after he could no longer bear the harassment caused by Bawishi and Bhutaiya, who were hounding him for recovery of their loan.

“After the amendment, we made a proposal against Bawishi and Bhutaiya and sent it to the collector who issued a warrant against them. They were arrested and imprisoned,” said Karamata.

Under the new ACT, police made a proposal against accused and sent it to the collector who issued a warrant against them so been included under the purview of PASA.

Two drown in Jamnagar village river

Rajkot: Two persons drowned in the river of Lakhbawal village in Jamnagar taluka on Wednesday. While the firefighters of Jamnagar fire brigade fished out the body of Abbas Samani (19), the body of Haji Hussein Sumra (40) remained untraceable. “When Samani accidentally slipped into the river and started drowning, Sumra jumped into the river to save him. However, both of them drowned,” said an official from Jamnagar Panchakoshi B division police station. TNN

3 cheated with job promise, 1 booked

Vadodara: A man was booked at Navapura police station on Wednesday for cheating three persons of Rs 7 lakh by promising them jobs and permit for working in Canada.

Accused Rajendrakumar Prasad, a native of Nadiad, who has settled in Surat had forged job offer letters and visa documents to con Tushar Patel, Mittal Chavda and Harsh Manohar. The trio, who live on RV Desai Road, had contacted Prasad through their friend Bhadrash Pandya, a resident of Sama.

After meeting in November last year, Prasad had told them that he will charge Rs 7 lakh for everything and collected Rs 1.5 lakh in advance.

A few weeks later, Prasad sent a forged appointment letter to the trio on WhatsApp which they believed to be true and sent Rs 98,500 to him for visa procedures. On December 5, he sent photographs of visa to them and took another Rs 4.5 lakh from the victims. The accused also told the victims that their air tickets have been booked. TNN
